Remembering Punchdrunk with a gift in your Will

As a charity, (registered number 1113741) leaving Punchdrunk a gift in your Will is a lasting way to support our charitable objectives and enable us to continue producing groundbreaking work for many years to come.

The theatrical experiences that Punchdrunk produces are like no other, giving unique experiences to audiences. A legacy gift to Punchdrunk helps ensure that future generations will likewise experience the magic of Punchdrunk productions and projects.

“I know that writing a Will is not the first thing most people think about when they attend a theatre production, but for me it’s been a no-brainer. When I unsuspectingly walked into my first Punchdrunk show it completely took me by surprise, and the world has looked a little bit different ever since. I’d like as many people as possible to experience that magic of finding something you didn’t even know you needed in your life. That’s why I love Punchdrunk’s Enrichment work - it reaches people who can’t help but be completely bowled over by the world that has been created for them, and I believe it has the potential to change lives.*”

As Punchdrunk is a registered charity, no inheritance tax is payable on the amount of your gift. So in addition to supporting Punchdrunk, your legacy gift could also reduce the inheritance tax liability on your estate.

Anyone can make a gift in their Will. If you decide to leave a legacy gift, you can remember Punchdrunk with a fixed amount (a pecuniary gift) or a percentage share of the residue of your estate (a residual gift). A gift of any size will be gratefully received.

Unless you specify otherwise, your legacy gift will be used to support Punchdrunk’s future charitable work in the United Kingdom.

Please consider contacting us if you are thinking about leaving a legacy gift and remembering Punchdrunk in your Will.
